

Health Consultations for People "The Marijke Method"

Complete health assessments are available for people who are challenged with health problems and/or who would like a detailed health assessment done. The work-ups are performed by Marijke van de Water, B.Sc., DHMS. Through using a unique technique of kinesiology, known as The Marijke Method™, she is able to evaluate health status and identify the underlying problems which are causing symptoms. These problems may vary from food intolerances, hidden food allergies, nutritional deficiencies, poor organ function, pathogens and/or emotional and spiritual problems. Once the issues have been identified they are corrected with a personal health program using diet, nutrition, herbs, homeopathy and/or lifestyle changes.

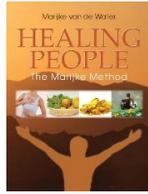

Marijke has worked as a highly respected healer for over twenty years specializing in a variety of health conditions:

Digestive problems	Fatigue
Allergies	Immunity
Chronic Illness	Hormonal/Glandular Imbalances
Chronic Pain	Depression/Anxiety
Skin Problems	Respiratory
Emotional Issues	Spiritual Issues

The Marijke Method™ was developed from her practice of over twenty years working with people and animals. The Marijke Method™ is a method of energy testing (kinesiology) that works by "testing" the electromagnetic energy field around organs, body systems, foods, nutrients and remedies. Kinesiology enables the practitioner to "track" the body systems and many of its functions - it identifies blocked energy fields, pinpoints specific problems and assesses the underlying cause. Kinesiology can be performed in the physical presence of a person or at a distance, known as remote testing. Remote testing is possible because all imbalances present themselves in the electromagnetic field, a field which is beyond space and time. Electromagnetic fields surround every part of the body including connective tissue, blood, the nervous system, the immune system and all other body organs. This field is a fundamental force of nature and is a unique "fingerprint" for every person.

Appointments

Appointments are available by distance or in the office.

To schedule an office appointment, please call or email the Riva's clinic.

To schedule a distance appointment, please fill out the Client Intake Form and return by fax, email or mail. Include two pictures of yourself: one full body picture and one portrait picture.

Work-ups are done on a first-come, first-serve basis although urgent cases will be given priority. Upon completion and before invoicing you will receive a written report from Marijke detailing the diet and nutrition program, remedy and supplement program, any recommended lifestyle changes, and/or "messages" from your body.

Consultation Fees

Distance Consultations: $200 per person

Full consultation including Hair Mineral Analysis: $315.00. (A savings of $50 on the hair mineral analysis.)

Office Consultations: $150.00

*Please note that we make every effort to support our health programs by answering questions, addressing concerns and making adjustments where required for the first 60 days after the consultation. After this time, there are usually too many shifts and changes to the body and to the general health, lives and lifestyles for us to give effective advice based on the original situation. To maximize results we therefore recommend arranging for a new consultation.
